

Connecticut Debate Association
Extemporaneous Debate Resolutions
1996-2012

The attached list of tournament resolutions is incomplete. The full resolution is stated when available. If only the topic area is known, the entry is listed as “Topic:....” Where neither is available, question marks (“???”) appear.

2011-12 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October 1	The US should significantly increase taxes on the rich.
October 15	Connecticut should eliminate the death penalty.
November	The US should adopt legislation substantially similar to the DREAM Act.
December	The U.S. should significantly increase investment in microgeneration.
January	College athletes should be paid competitive salaries.
February	The UN should accept Palestine as a member state.
March 3	The Chinese system of “state capitalism” is better than the US system of “free market capitalism.”
March 24	All US residents should be required to purchase health insurance.

2010-11 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October 2	The U.S. should repeal all estate and inheritance taxes.
October 16	The U.S should legalize the sale and use of “illicit” drugs.
November	Developing nations should privatize their water systems
December	Wikileaks should be suppressed and anyone associated with it prosecuted.
January	No tournament due to the weather.
February	No tournament due to the weather
February 12	Teacher pay, promotion and tenure should be based primarily on measured student performance.
March 5	U.S. foreign policy should prioritize democracy ahead of stability.
March 26	The U.S. should ban collective bargaining by public sector labor unions.

2009-10 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	The US should implement a “public option” as part of comprehensive health care reform.
November	Iran should comply with the UN-sponsored uranium exchange agreement.
December	All accused terrorists should be tried by military tribunals.
January	The US should respond to global warming by instituting a significant reduction in carbon emissions.
February	No tournament due to the weather.
March 6	The patenting of human DNA should not be permitted.
March 27	The U.S. should significantly limit corporate spending on federal elections.

2008-09 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	Connecticut should adopt high school education reforms substantially similar to the McQuillan Initiative.
November	That the media in the United States should be required to abide by the Fairness Doctrine.
December	The United States should repeal the United States-India Nuclear Cooperation Approval and Nonproliferation Enhancement Act.
January	No tournament due to the weather
February	That soft drinks with added sugar should be taxed to discourage their consumption.
March 7	The U.S. should withdraw all regular combat forces from Afghanistan.
March 28	The U.S. should significantly limit total compensation paid by corporations to individual employees.

2007-08 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	The United States should boycott the 2008 Beijing Olympics.
November	Aviation fuel for all domestic and international flights should be taxed for the purposes of combating global climate change.
December	No tournament due to inclement weather
January	In Connecticut illegal immigrant college students should be eligible to receive academic financial aid including in-state tuition rates.
February	That the State Children’s Health Insurance Program (SCHIP) should be significantly expanded.
March 3	In the US, state-sponsored gambling lotteries should be abolished.
March 29	U.S. federal budget funding for NASA (National Aeronautics & Space Administration) should be substantially decreased.

2006-07 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	Christopher Columbus' role in American history should continue to be celebrated in the U.S.
November	Federally standardized, electronically readable driver's licenses & ID cards and their associated federal database should be implemented throughout the United States.
December	In the U.S. a student's race is an appropriate factor in admissions policies & practices at public elementary and secondary schools.
January	In the United States the keeping of animals in zoos should be banned.
February	In the U.S., public high school athletes should undergo mandatory random drug testing.
March 3	The U.S. should actively pursue development and expansion of its nuclear power facilities.
March 24	The U.S. government should give Slavery Reparations to its African-American citizens.

2005-06 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	The "Pledge of Allegiance," as quoted below, should continue to be recited in US public schools.
November	Employer policies banning employees from smoking both on and off the job should be illegal.
December	All citizens of the United States should be required to register as post-mortem organ donors.
January	"Collaborative Drug Therapy Management" as proposed in MA Bill #2689 should be implemented in the US.
February	No tournament due to inclement weather.
March	The Supreme Court ruling on eminent domain in the case of Kelo v. New London should be overturned.
April	In the United States "bloggers" should be protected by the "Shield Laws" and "Journalistic Privilege" which protects U.S. journalists.

The Pledge of Allegiance

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Collaborative Drug Therapy Management

"Collaborative Drug Therapy Management" means the initiating, monitoring, modifying and discontinuing of a patient's drug therapy by a pharmacist in accordance with a collaborative practice agreement.

2004-05 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	All U.S. states' electoral votes should be proportionately distributed as proposed in Colorado's Amendment 36.
November	Topic: outsourcing of US jobs overseas.
December	Commencing in 2005, the U.S. selective service "draft" should be reactivated.
January	No tournament due to inclement weather.
February	Topic: opening of Alaskan National Wildlife Reserve to oil exploration
March	The United States Congress should enact legislation limiting non-economic (pain and suffering) compensatory damage awards in personal injury lawsuits to $250,000.
April	The U.S. Supreme Court, in deliberating "Ashcroft v. Reich" should rule in favor of Reich, thereby upholding California's "Compassionate Use Act."

2003-04 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	The constitutional rights of Federal prisoners should be restricted for the protection of American society.
November	That the United States should immediately withdraw from Iraq.
December	The United States should normalize relations with the Cuban government by lifting its embargo.
January	Term limits for all elected officials should be abolished.
February	Topic: NASA space shuttle
March	The U.S. Constitution should be amended to define and protect marriage as a union of man and women as husband and wife.
April	In the United States physician-assisted suicide for the terminally ill should be legalized.

2002-03 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	The benefits of a war with Iraq outweigh the concerns related to such a war.
November	That government regulation of the media at the expense of freedom of the press is necessary for the protection of American society.
December	???
January	The Federal Government of the United States shall ensure that all American citizens are guaranteed quality health care.
February	Offshore drilling within U.S. territorial waters shall be banned.
March	The inherent costs of manned space exploration can no longer be justified.
April	In the United States capital punishment (the death penalty) should not be abolished.

2001-02 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	???
November	Topic: civil liberties in wartime
December	???
January	???
February	???
March	???
April	???

2000-01 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	Topic: Defense vs. environmental spending
November	Topic: Mastery testing for graduation
December	???
January	???
February	That fragile ecosystems need to be protected by laws to keep people out.
March	That people who play professional sports should be reminded, severely if necessary, of their responsibility to be good role models for their man fans, both young and old.
April

1999-2000 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	U.S. First Amendment rights to free expression should be valued above a conflicting desire to protect certain societal and/or religious symbols from defamation.
November	Humankind should not engage in the genetic alteration of living things.
December	???
January	Teachers should be paid according to the success of their students, not according to the economic laws of supply and demand.
February	U.S. taxpayers must perform a minimum of 50 hours unpaid social service work per year or be required to pay an additional tax.
March	People who play professional sports should be reminded, severely if necessary, of their responsibility to be good role models for their many fans, both young and old.
April	The USA must provide military backing to democratic societies militarily threatened by undemocratic societies.

1998-99 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	Protection of the public health is more important than the civil liberties of people with HIV.
November	The election of an ex-professional wrestler to the office of Governor of Minnesota is a sign of the ongoing debasement of American electoral politics.
December	???
January	???
February	The actions of mentally disturbed individuals should not cause the courts to deprive an entire class of citizens of their basic rights.
March	Teachers in the future should have to be as knowledgeable about effective use of technology in the classroom as they need to be about their subject areas.
April	The United States should trade favorably and fully only with those countries which practice full democracy, with attendant human rights and individual freedoms.

1997-98 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	???
November	American presidents should be elected to one (and only one) six-year term.
November	That prison inmate labor is an acceptable manpower resource for American companies.
December	Many northeastern states (in the USA) need to change.
January	???
February	Urban areas have outlived their usefulness as economic centers in America. Our American society must do more to protect our citizens from themselves.
February	Our American society must do more to protect our citizens from themselves.
April	The free speech of minors (under 18 years of age) needs to be more restricted (by rule of law) than the free speech of adults (over 18 years of age).

1996-97 School Year

Tournament	Resolution
October	???
November	Spending U.S. federal funds in foreign humanitarian causes is worth every cent.
December	Americans should consider religion on the internet a viable alternative to traditional modes of worship.
January	???
February	???
March	In American schools where grade inflation has occurred, making grading standards more arduous will better serve such schools, their students and communities.
April	???